

MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, MONDAY, AUGUST 3, 1914.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

Smith's typist wore those lacy waist-
And skirts like gauze—but tighter
I said to Smith: "I see you have A visible typewriter."

BECKHAM WINS

Senatorial Nomination By a Safe Vote Over Stanley—
McCreary Not in It

Former Governor A. F. Willson Appears To Be in Lead For Republican Nomination

Following is the total vote of Mason county for Senator and Congressman:

U. S. Senator—Long Term.
R. P. Ernst	330
A. E. Willson	78
L. F. McLaughlin	6
J. C. W. Beckham	582
A. O. Stanley	837
J. B. McCreary	59
U. S. Senator—Short Term.
H. D. Fitzpatrick	57
W. M. Bullitt	335
Johnson N. Camden	801
Bennett H. Young	229
D. H. Smith	31
Congress.
W. J. Field	897
J. Roe Young	104
J. S. Haley	87
J. P. Hauey	254
J. W. Perry	8
H. Gleu Ireland	363
George Osborne	67
Progressives for U. S. Senator—Mr. Jolly polled about 30 votes while Mr. Vance polled 6.

GOVERNOR WILLSON DEFEATS ERNST.

Former Governor A. E. Willson on the face of the returns, has a big lead over R. P. Ernst, of Covington, for the long term Republican nomination and Marshall Bullitt of Louisville apparently has won his race for the short term nomination.

Senatorial Fight.

The result of the long term fight:

Districts.	Beckham	Stanley	McCreary
First	6,363	5,031	1,880
Second	1,707	10,750	331
Third	8,319	4,790	198
Fourth	8,309	6,106	923
Fifth	4,231	7,197	2,816
Sixth	3,175	7,355	1,375

Seventh	8,820	7,021	2,981
Eighth	5,800	3,205	3,118
Ninth	5,258	4,145	1,977
Tenth	2,128	136	1,210
Eleventh	3,006	1,112	453
Totals	60,215	57,028	17,256

Louisville, Ky., August 2.—In a statement given out here tonight General Percy Haley says that J. C. W.
Beckham carried eight out of the eleven Congressional districts, winning the nomination for the long term Senatorship over Hon. A. O. Stanley from an 8,000 to 10,000 majority. The vote in the county precincts, General Haley said, was about forty per cent of the normal and in the cities about seventy-five per cent.

According to General Haley, Beckham carried ninety-one out of the 120 counties, McCreary, four, and Stanley the remainder.

Senator Johnson N. Camden has been nominated for the short term by a majority over both his competitors so large that the race was lost sight of in the closer fight between Beckham and Stanley. He received in many counties of the State almost the solid Democratic vote, his opponents showing strength only in their home district—and General Young lost his to Mr. Camden by a small majority.

CALEB POWERS

Carried Fourteen Out of Fifteen Counties in the Eleventh.

Barlowville, Ky., Aug 1.—Caleb Powers wins the Republican nomination for Congress in the Eleventh district, he having carried fourteen out of fifteen counties.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the friends, neighbors and street railway company for the courtesy shown our mother, Mrs. Hill, during the recent accident.

THE CHILDREN.

DOVER VOTED IN FAVOR OF SCHOOL TAX.

In Saturday's election in the Dover School district the vote was in favor of the school tax of 15 cents and L. T. Fox was elected Trustee.

MEETING OF C. W. B. M.

The C. W. B. M. Society of the Christian Church will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. L. M. Mills on Front street.

BOARD MEETING

There will be a Board meeting at the City Mission rooms tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

WAR SWEEPS ALL EUROPE

Russia Invades Germany—Germany Invades France—
England in the Fray

TITANIC CONTEST IN WHICH IS SEEN
THE HAND OF GOD

London, England, August 2.—Germany, having invaded France, it is felt in London that the time for action on the part of England has arrived.

There is reason to believe that at the cabinet meeting today preparations were completed for such instant action as the circumstances may demand.

The naval reservists were called out at 4:30 this afternoon. This action confirms the belief that the British Government is ready to take its part in the struggle.

Close observers in London could not fail to be impressed with the fact that something tremendous was happening.
Short of actual mobilization the government is taking all necessary steps to meet a situation unprecedented in the nation's history.

Russians Invade Germany.
Berlin, Germany, August 2.—A Russian column, with artillery, has crossed the German frontier at Schwinden, southeast of Bialla.

Two squadrons of Russian cossacks are riding in the direction of Johannesburg, in East Prussia, fifteen miles from the frontier.

London, England, August 2.—Four great powers of Europe, Austria, Russia, France and Germany, are now engaged in actual warfare, but two of them—Germany and France—have not yet not declared war as far as is known here, but have not even severed diplomatic relations. This is despite the fact that Germany's ultimatum to France has either been ignored or rejected.

The explanation of this would appear to be that Germany and France are each seeking to throw upon the other the onus of beginning the war. In fact, while the nations of Europe are flying at each others' throats, they are vying with each other in protesting their desires to maintain peace and they repudiate the responsibility for plunging the whole continent into fighting.

In this curious situation France, according to British opinion has the strongest justification. She certainly was the last to mobilize and seems to have taken the greatest precautions to avoid frontier collisions.

Germany Invades France.
London, England, August 2.—The German invasion of France has begun, according to authentic information received in London today, without, so far as is known, a declaration of war having been made.

GARDEN PARTY

En Fete, To Be Given Wednesday Evening by the First District Parent-Teacher Association.

On Wednesday evening, August 5, the Parent-Teachers' Association of the First District will give a garden fete at the residence of Mrs. George Barbour on Wall street from 8 to 10:30. A variety of delicious sandwiches will be served and coffee made after the perfection recipe which demands that it shall be as strong as love, as black as hate and as hot as—well as our Ohio Valley brands of summer.

A lovely table will be presided over by some attractive young ladies. And there will be music and the moon. Do not resist their combination, but come early, stay late and bring the family and the stranger within the gates. Proceeds to be devoted to wiping out of the entire debt for the lighting of the school. If there is a surplus it will be reserved as a nucleus for a school library fund.

MRS. A. P. ABBOTT'S FUNERAL

The remains of Mrs. Nannie Thompson Abbott arrived from Marietta, Ga., Saturday night over the L. & N., accompanied by her husband and father and mother, and were taken to the Thompson home in East Third street.

Funeral services at the home this afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of Pastor
A. P. Stahl of the Christian Church, Burial in the Mayville Cemetery.

The sudden death of Mrs. Abbott has cast a shadow where once all was radiant sunshine.

The Master's will be done.

Wall paper, rugs and paint at HEN-DRICKSON'S.

MRS. WOODWARD HONORED

New England Selects a Teacher South of the Mason and Dixon Line.

The many friends of Mrs. Isaac Woodward in this city and county, will be glad to hear of her successful career in the East.

Mrs. Elizabeth Woodward, the widow of the late Isaac Woodward, married at in Columbia University shortly after the death of her husband about two years ago.

Last week the president of the State Normal School of Massachusetts went down to the University to select a head for the Department of Education in his school. After interviewing both men and women from all over the United States, he selected Mrs. Woodward.

The Faculty of the University is very much pleased over the fact that a Southern woman was chosen. It is not only evidence that all prejudice between the North and South is forgotten, but that in the land of the Puritans, Southern women are coping with Northern men and when brain is pitted against brain, the woman wins.

Mayville has cause to be proud at the recognition given to three of her women who have graduated from Columbia within the last few years.

Miss Phoebe Waller, daughter of Dr.
Maurice Waller of this city, is now teacher of English in the New York City schools at a salary that few educators in Kentucky ever get.

Miss Daisy Greenwood, formerly teacher in the Mayville High School, is Social Director in the largest dormitory of Columbia, and Mrs. Woodward goes to quaint old Plymouth, the head of the department in the State Normal.

Mrs. Woodward, we take our hat off to you and are willing to offer you as a sample of Kentucky womanhood.

A TWELVE POUND BOY.

Born, yesterday, to the wife of Mr.
William Dargarell of the East End, a 12-pound boy.

Among the thousands of marooned
American tourists now in Europe, are Miss Susie Armstrong, sister of Mrs.
J. B. Russell, and Miss Hilda Threlkeld, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Threlkeld of this city.

A. W. Moody has accepted a position with the Postal Telegraph Company here.

$50,000 DAMAGE SUIT

Filed Against C. & O. Railroad
Co. By the Equitable Trust
Co. of Dover For Causing Death of Alonzo Williams

The Equitable Trust Company of Dover, as administrator of Alonzo Williams, deceased, filed suit in Mason
Circuit Court for $50,000 damages against the C. & O. Railroad.

In February, 1911, while crossing the track of the C. & O. at a public crossing near the depot at South Ripley, Alonzo Williams, was by the alleged carelessness and negligence of the C. &
O. Railroad Company and its employees,
John Mann, engineer, and Frank P.
Fish, conductor, who were in charge thereof, run over and killed by one of the C. & O.'s passenger trains going west.

Wherefore the plaintiff prays for a judgment against the defendants in the sum of $50,000 and for costs and all proper relief.

YOUNG BATHER DROWNS.

Portsmouth, Ohio.—Henry Arnold, 17 years old, was drowned when bathing in the Scioto River. His body was recovered.

Cream Frappe

Something new. Can be used on Jello or fruits of any kind. Sells for 10c. Order one today.

DINGER BROS., Leading Retailers
107 W. Second St

BUILD YOUR HOUSE NOW!

If you are contemplating building a home or a house for an investment, now is the time to place your order. We have the largest stock of all kinds of building material that can be found in Northeastern Kentucky, and have large contracts with the timber men for still greater supply. We contracted this large supply at a price very near cost of production and we are in position to give you the advantage of this good purchase. Place your order now or let us give you an estimate on your requirements; you will then leave your order with Mayville's Foremost Lumber Yard.

The Mason Lumber Co., Inc.

Cor. Second and Limestone Sts. Phone 519. MAYSVILLE, KY.
A. A. McLAUGHLIN. L. N. BEHAN.

BICYCLES CHEAP

CONTRACT OFF NOW.

Boy's Grade $12.50 to $17.50.
Standard size striped. Price $15.00.
Standard size 20, $30 complete.
Front wheels $2.25.
Inner tubes 6c up.
Lamps, bells and tires.

J. T. KACKLEY & CO.

LILLIAN RUSSELL

says that it's a crime for a woman to grow old and haggard looking.

A. D. S. PEROXIDE CREAM

will stop you from committing a crime. Snuff Sed.

NOTICE!

We are agents for the Model Laundry and would like for you to give us your laundry.

M. F. WILLIAMS & CO. THE THIRD STREET
DRUGSTORE.

D. HECHINGER & CO.

Mayville's Best Clothing and Shoe Store.

We are promised more hot weather during this month. We are again fully supplied with the genuine Palm Beach Suits, among them some very handsome dark pencil striped patterns. They are splendid garments to wear to the coming fairs; comfortable, cool and dast proof. Better provide yourself while we have all sizes.

Sweeping price reductions in all light and medium weight woolen and worsted suits, including the best $10 blue serge suit ever offered in Mayville.

Daily arrivals of Fall Clothing. Youngsters who will soon go back to school and college will find it profitable to look at our new Fall Suits.

D. HECHINGER & CO.

ALL-SILKS AND SILK-AND-COTTON
FABRICS AT HALF PRICE

You'll hardly need urging to take advantage of such bargains. All we ask you is to see them—the price will do the rest.

Dress Cottons
25c Yard

"What pretty dress cottons and only 25c a yard!" is an exclamation heard very often here.
Crepes, tissues, voiles. Hosts of colors, patterns, weaves at this little price.

1852

HUNT'S

1914

THE CLEAN SWEEP SALE
Continues All Week

Plenty of goods yet to be swept away by greatly reduced prices.

Now is the time to reduce the high price of living.

Every department has its tempting bargains.

MERZ BROS.

BUGGIES,
RUNABOUTS,
DRIVING WAGONS

Too many of them
Must be turned into Money at once.

Here's a chance to get a buggy at your own price.

MIKE BROWN,

THE SQUARE DEAL MAN.

SHELBY FARM IS SOLD. farm of 400 acres on Jack's Creek pike was sold by the George heirs to Lylel-Lexington.—The old, Isaac Shelby lyn Sharp for $50,000.

LUNCHEON SPECIALTIES

You will find HERE more nice things to make your Picnic Lunch as petizing and wholesome than anywhere.
If you are going to take an Outing, we will be glad to have you call.

Phone 43.

GEISEL & CONRAD

THE PUBLIC LEDGER

DAIly—EXCEPT SUNDAY, FOURTH OF JULY, THANKSGIVING AND CHRISTMAS.

A. F. CURRAN, Editor and Publisher.

Local and Long Distance Telephone No. 40. OFFICE—PUBLIC LEDGER BUILDING, MAYSVILLE, KY.

Entered at the Maysville, Ky., Postoffice as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTIONS—BY MAIL.

One Year $3.00
Six Months $1.50
Three Months .75

MOONLIGHT SCHOOLS IN HARDIN.

Hardin County is in the midst of a great educational revival. A week's campaign, with speaking in every school house, has been waged, and Moonlight Schools are to be opened soon, fifty teachers having volunteered to teach them, following an eloquent address and appeal by Mr. Harry A. Summers. The Hardin County Board of Education has the distinction of being the first in the State to offer a prize to the teacher who teaches the largest number of illiterates. The Woman's Club of Elizabethtown offers the same amount for same purpose, and is the first Woman's Club in the State to offer such a prize. Supt. Payne, of Hardin County, the Hardin County Board of Education, Hardin County Public School Teachers, the Woman's Club of Elizabethtown and Col. Harry A. Summers and the Elizabethtown News are all banded together to wipe illiteracy out of Hardin. It has not a chance to exist in that county.

UNCLE SAM WILL KEEP HANDS

OFF DURING BIG RUMPUSS.

The United States will not at this time tender its good offices to preserve peace in Europe. President Wilson has so stated, explaining that so far this Government lacks a "key" to the situation abroad. The United States is too remote and official information is too meager, it appears, for the President to believe it wise for the United States to become involved in any way in the quarrel.

The President said that no tender of peaceful offices had been made, and indicated that the Administration has no such purpose in mind at the present time.

The President said also that a proclamation of neutrality would not be issued as a result of the official notification by Austria that that country is at war with Serbia. Until other nations become involved the proclamation of neutrality is not regarded as necessary.

The Panama Canal, which will be open to commerce in another two weeks, is destined at the outset to become a strategic highway of the world if the present hostilities between Austria-Hungary and Serbia develop into a general conflict involving the other great European Powers.

EMPLOYERS' COMPENSATION!

If a workman is injured by machinery in the factory where he is employed, the employer is required to compensate him financially for his injury. The employee having been deprived of his earning capacity, undergoes financial loss, and is compensated therefor. On the other hand, if an employer is financially injured by a workman, he receives no compensation whatever.

Why not an Employers' compensation Act, which would repay an employer's loss caused by the deliberate misbehavior of an employee? Obvious defects have unquestionably developed in the operation of many Workmen's Compensation Acts, and such a law might serve to equalize matters a little.

A case in point occurred in a furniture establishment in Astoria, L. I., not long ago. A workman in the plant, employed to operate a machine situated on the first floor of the building, helped himself to a mahogany plank (property of the employer) and took it to a machine on the second floor of the factory, in order that he might work it into a cabinet for his own use. While so doing he was seriously injured.

The culprit in this case is obviously the employer, at least he is so considered under the law. He will be required to pay compensation to a workman who stole material and was injured while working it on a machine which he had no authority to touch. The employer has no appeal; he must reach for his pocket book and question not.

Every now and then the sublime wisdom of legislators breaks down, and usually they are able to successfully dodge the blame; certainly the culpability in this instance has been shouldered onto an innocent man—American Industries.

VALUABLE CATTLE.

A Marion county man sold eighteen head of cattle the other day for $2,054.25. In other words the cattle weighed 24,900 pounds and were sold at 8 1/4 cents a pound. This is said to have been the best and highest priced bunch of cattle ever sold in the county. They were purchased by Monte Fox, of Danville, and were shipped to New York. And yet there are some farmers in Kentucky who are not able to see where cattle raising pays and there are hundreds of farmers who make no especial effort in that way. Cattle are scarce and becoming scarcer. The receipts at Kansas City so far this year are 150,000 below the receipts during the same period last year. Even a blind farmer ought to be able to see that there are splendid prospects for increasing farm prosperity by developing the cattle growing industry.

NEWSPAPERS AND WARS.

"A big European war will be a fine thing for the newspapers," said the Philadelphia manager of a large electrical company.

"In what way?" I inquired. "Help you to sell papers," was his reply.

Alas! Others may see your ointment, but you alone can observe the fly swimming around it. The ink is scarcely dry upon the printed testimony of one newspaper manager to the effect that the Spanish-American War had cost his publication a tidy three-quarters of a million net.

The editor of the London Post told me his paper had 20 correspondents in the Boer War and cable rates were then $1.20 a word from Cape Town. That African conquest was the biggest menace to newspaper dividends which London has experienced in a generation.

I saw dispatches come from Manila during our insurrection there which cost $3,000 a column. That included the price paid the special correspondent for sending one article.

Yes. A convention of newspaper proprietors would as quickly endorse a grant war for their own money-making purposes as a farmers' grange would vote to employ a pack of wolves to guard their sheep.—Philadelphia Ledger.

SAFETY FIRST AND ALWAYS.

The movement for greater safety in the operation of automobiles is becoming general. The rapid multiplication of motor-driven vehicles has increased vastly the number of disasters and casualties. Monday morning newspapers teem with accounts of the slain and injured, a silent tribute to the transformation of the day of peace into a day of carnage.

The Safety First Society of New York City has issued a card which it is giving wide distribution, and which it will be well for every motor car driver and owner to memorize. Here are its salutary injunctions:

MOTORISTS.

Carefulness First Means Safety Always.

1. Be Considerate.
2. Go Slow.
 - Passing children.
 - Passing vehicles.
 - Around corners.
 - Approaching crossings.
3. Stop.
 - At railroad crossings.
 - Behind street cars taking on or discharging passengers.
4. Use tire chains on wet and slippery pavements. Better be safe than sorry.

It is time the carnage of the motor vehicle be greatly lessened, even though it cannot be entirely eliminated. Many accidents are not the fault of drivers, but of awkward, unthinking or careless pedestrians. The death and injury list, however, will be greatly minimized with the exercise of greater precaution on the part of the drivers.

WHAT A GENTLEMAN IS.

An exact definition of a gentleman has been tried many times, never perhaps with entire satisfactory results. Little Sadie had never heard any of the definitions, but she managed to throw a gleam of light on the subject. The word was in the spelling lesson, and the teacher said:

"Sadie, what is a gentleman?"

"Please n-a-m-e," she answered, "a gentleman's a man you don't know very well."

Four persons were killed when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a Bessemer & Lake Erie Railroad passenger train at Kenfrew, Pa.

When a woman derides the social cliques in her town that means she hasn't been invited to join one.

Audubon Water!

NATURE'S GREATEST HEALTH DRINK

For Sale By
GORDON SMOOT.

Orders filled promptly. Phone 3 and 51.

COUGHLIN & CO.

Livery, Feed and Sales Stable

Undertakers, Embalmers. Automobiles for Hire.

Phone 31.

Fresh Meats

W. A. Wood & Bro.

Market Street. MAYSVILLE, KY.

All kinds of Fresh Meats. Cash paid for butchers' stock, hides and tallow.

PRIZES FOR TOBACCO

Will Make a Lively Contest at the Louisville State Fair—Mason County Should Be Well Represented

The prospects of holding a splendid Tobacco Show at the Kentucky State Fair were never better. Those in charge of this Department have been encouraged by reason of the fact that quite a lot of tobacco has been topped during the past ten days. This should give it plenty of time to thoroughly mature and be ready for exhibit by the 14th of September. The exhibit of old tobacco has always been a good one but the new exhibit has always been deficient in quantity. There is nothing that will advertise your State and County more than a good tobacco show, and the Superintendent of the Tobacco Department of the State Fair, Mr. Evan S. Ross, of Springfield, Ky., stands ready at all times to advise with the farmers of the State relative to making entry and exhibit.

The premium list is as follows:

Burley (Crop 1913)	1st	2nd	3rd
Red Leaf	$20	$10	$5.00
Bright Leaf	20	10	5.00
Cigarette Wrapper	20	10	5.00
Bright Trash	20	10	5.00

Best four samples from a single crop, embracing Red Leaf, Bright Leaf, Cigarette Wrapper and Trash

Burley (Crop 1914)	1st	2nd	3rd
Red Leaf	$10	$5	$2.50
Bright Leaf	10	5	2.50
Cigarette Wrapper	10	5	2.50
Bright Trash	10	5	2.50

Best four samples from a single crop, embracing Red Leaf, Bright Leaf, Cigarette Wrapper and Trash

Dark (Crop 1913)	1st	2nd	3rd
Austrian Leaf	$15	$10	$5.00
Black Wrapper	15	10	5.00
Long or African Leaf	15	10	5.00
French Leaf	15	10	5.00
Italian Leaf	15	10	5.00
Green River Leaf	15	10	5.00

Best four samples, each sample representing different type

Dark (Crop 1911)	1st	2nd	3rd
Austrian Leaf	$10	$5	$2.50
Black Wrapper	10	5	2.50
Long or African Leaf	10	5	2.50
French Leaf	10	5	2.50
Italian Leaf	10	5	2.50

Best four samples, each sample representing different type

FIFTY YEARS AGO IN CINCINNATI

(Commercial Tribune.)
AUGUST 1, 1861.

The temperature yesterday reached the record for the year, going up to 101 deg. The humidity was excessive and there was great suffering in all sections of the city.

There were eleven jackets in yesterday and nine out. Business was good although the water is now so low that operations are uncertain.

The new altar in St. Xavier's Church were dedicated yesterday. Most Rev. Archbishop Hughes officiating. Rev. M. O'Connor of Pittsburgh delivered an address in the evening on "St. Ignace as a Reformer."

Major General Burbridge, in command of the Federal army in Eastern Kentucky, issues an order to all Sheriffs in the district not to permit the name of Alvin Duvall to be placed on any ticket for any office in the district during the coming elections.

Two hundred and fifty wounded soldiers arrived at the Nashville hospitals on the 20th. All had been with Sherman's army before Atlanta.

Seven hundred Confederate prisoners passed through Cincinnati yesterday for Camp Chase, where they will be confined in the Federal Prison. These men were all captured during the fighting before Atlanta.

A CORRECT DOCTRINE

There is too much of a tendency in America to overestimate the importance of educational accessories; the vital thing is desire to learn and a good instructor to teach, and in the largest states it is more the spirit that the material resources that are lacking.—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

This is a clear statement of an idea that we have been urging upon the educational forces of this state, and it will win, notwithstanding the coolness of the professions toward the doctrine. The people will understand that intellectual education does not create a truer citizenship. Anyone who opens his eyes to the social situation can see that. It is unwise to follow the old rut further. If the parents want to make true men and women of their children; if they want to create a desire to learn and prompt the spirit of nobler resolutions, they should insist that school authority lay in a new direction and stop stifling the divine energy by intellectual tasks. Free the souls of the boys and girls from the prisons of arithmetic and grammar, and let them out, and under the noble guidance, mingle the facts of life.—Ashland Independent.

MODEL ROAD PROGRESS.

Carlisle.—Nicholas county has just completed one one-half miles of the eight miles of model road being built from Carlisle to the Bath county line, which is pronounced one of the best in the State. The second tap of the road was started at Miranda and the work is now toward this city.

John L. Billard has resigned from the Directorates of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company and the New England Navigation Company.

Eat Traxel's Bread

PALM BEACH SUITS

Dry Cleaned and Pressed... $1.00
Wet Cleaned and Pressed... .50

We guarantee the Dry Process against shrinkage—makes them look new.

We have all our dry cleaning done by the Fenton Dry Cleaning Company of Cincinnati, O. This plant was equipped at a cost of over $100,000 and is one of the largest and best equipped in the middle West.

Work Satisfactory or Money Refunded.

C. F. McNAMARA
61 1/2 West Front Street.

The Marinello Shop

THINGS WE DO

Instantaneous Face Bleaching
Pimples and Blackhead Treatment
Wrinkle Treatment
Warts and Moles Removed Electrolysis
Scalp Treatment
Hot Oil Treatment
Machine Treatment
Shampooing
Manicuring
Hair Dressing
Special Attention Given to Baldness
Hair Carefully Matched in Color and Texture, or Made Up From Your Combing.
CHIROPODY

Dr. Nora K. Brown.
MARINELLO SHOP
Fifth Floor, First National Bank Bldg.

CUT PRICE SALE NO. 4

N. Y. Store Tomorrow and All Next Week

By Special Request We Put on Some of the Specials on Sale Last Saturday

- Special No. 1—Ladies' Ratine and Pique Skirts with Tunic 98c.
- Special No. 2—Silks for Waists and Dresses 15c yard.
- Special No. 3—New Fall Hats 39c and up.
- Special No. 4—$1.25 Embroidered Muslin Skirts 69c.
- Special No. 5—Beautiful Lawns and Organdies, 19c quality, 10c yard.
- Special No. 6—Ladies' 50c Drawers and Corset Covers 25c.
- Special No. 7—$2 Waists 98c, many styles.
- Special No. 8—Ladies' colored Underskirts, five colors, 29c.
- Special No. 9—Ladies' $1.25 Dresses 69c.
- Special No. 10—Children's Dresses, slightly soiled, 25c and 50c.
- Special No. 11—Beautiful Japanese Matting, sold at 25c and 35c, to close at 18c yard.
- Special No. 12—25c Crepes for dresses 15c yard.

NEW YORK STORE S. STRAUS, Proprietor
PHONE 571

Porch Furniture

We have a large stock of Porch Furniture—Swings, etc., that we do not want to carry over, so we are going to give you the advantage of a big reduction. Come early and get your choice. : - : - : - :

McILVAIN, HUMPHREYS & KNOX,

Funeral Directors and Embalmers.
Furniture Dealers.

207 Sutton Street. Phone 250. Maysville, Ky.

APPEAL

Desiring to close up the present business as soon as possible, we must insist that all those indebted to the firm to call and settle. Any one having accounts against us will present same for settlement.

RAINS BROS. PHONE 191

FOR SALE!

We have for sale the home of Mrs. H. C. Smith on East Fifth street. This is a two-story seven-room house in good repair, with water and gas in the house. There are two lots that go with the house. These lots run from Fifth back to Sixth street. We do not hesitate to say that this is a very cheap place at the price asked for it, and if you are looking for a medium priced home we don't think this one can be duplicated in our city at the price asked—$1,850.00.

Thos L. Ewan & Co
REAL ESTATE
LOAN AGENTS
FARMERS and TRADERS' BANK.
MAYSVILLE, KY.

Graduation

— AND —

Wedding Presents!

Our stock consists of the most elaborate assortment of exquisite articles. Your inspection is solicited. : : : :

CHAS. W. TRAXEL & CO
PHONE 395.

NOW IS THE TIME

to lay in your supply of footwear for the family.

MEN'S, WOMEN'S and CHILDREN'S SHOES at terrific reductions in prices while our great

Cash-Raising and Clearance Sale

IS NOW IN PROGRESS

Today, Saturday,

Our entire stock of summer footwear, all this season's newest styles will go on sale, in many instances at less than actual cost of production. It will be many a day before you will again have the opportunity of buying high-grade shoes at such ridiculously low prices. Come today prepared to buy these great bargains to your own satisfaction.

DAN COHEN
INC

It's Not Bleached

The honest product of the golden wheat is creamy white, not dead white.

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

is the purest, most nourishing, strength-giving food in the world.

BUY A SACK FROM YOUR GROCER

Eventually

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

Why Not Now?

M. C. RUSSELL CO.,
Distributors.

Motorcyclists all remind us
We can ride o'er hills and dells,
And, departing, leave behind us
Forty-seven kinds of smells.
Times-Sun.

Lawn and Haxon 75c and $1 Blouses
39c. Voile and flaxon $1.25, $1.50,
Blouses 50c. Hunt's.

DO IT NOW

Maysville People Should Not Wait Until
It Is Too Late.

The appalling death rate from kidney disease is due largely to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms often give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer may slip gradually into some serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Donn's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they act where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

Mrs. S. Neal, 497 W. Second St., Maysville, Ky., says: "One of my family had a great deal of trouble from his back and kidneys. Donn's Kidney Pills made him better and he always praises them."

Mrs. Neal is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Donn's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Donn's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Neal recommends—the remedy backed by home testimony. See all stores. Poster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name."

IF YOU WERE BORN IN AUGUST

YOU will have unusually clear judgment, originality, great personal magnetism; will be emotional, good at planning for others, strong in your likes and dislikes. You will be certain to succeed if you will act instead of building air castles. You should strive for balance and self control. You should not marry too young, preferably a person born in September, October or December. To harmonize with your characteristics you should wear green, brown or red in any shade and diamond, ruby or jasper ornaments.

Great persons born in August: Sir Walter Scott, Napoleon Bonaparte, Christine Nilsson, Daniel O'Connell, Isaac Walton, Francis Scott Key, Goldwin Smith, Thomas De Quincey, David Crockett, Oliver Hazard Perry, Bret Harte, Oliver Wendell Holmes and Robert G. Ingersoll.

1914 AUGUST 1914
SUN.	MON.	TUE.	WED.	THU.	FRI.	SAT.
	2	3	4	5	6	7
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28
29	30	31

Don't take our word; ask the man who drives one. 1914 Models now on exhibit at

KIRK BROS., MAYSVILLE, KY.

COLD DRINKS At Our Fountain

- | | |
|---------------|--------------|
| Limeade | Fruit Sundae |
| Lemonade | Peach Sundae |
| Egg Phosphate | Melba Sundae |
| Egg Lemonade | Nut Sundae |

THE CHENOWETH DRUG CO., Incorporated.
COR. SECOND AND SUTTON STREETS, MAYSVILLE, KY.

21,000 BUSHELS OF BUGS

One of the most thorough bird students of New England has recently compiled some statistics that will be intensely interesting to bird lovers and should cause many who have been indifferent to the insects problem and deaf to arguments in favor of bird protection pause and ponder. By carefully estimating the number of birds found in several areas in the Bay State he concludes that there are not less than six insect eating birds per acre. This means that on the 8,000 square miles of area Massachusetts has a bird population of 25,000,000. On the assumption that each bird consumes on an average of 100 insects daily—and this is conservative—it means that the combined force of birds consumes the huge total of 2,500,000,000 insects daily. Assuming, as this authority does, that 120,000 insects will fill a bushel measure, the daily ration of this company of birds is 21,000 bushels. This for Massachusetts. What would the figures be for the country as a whole?

Uneeda Biscuit

Tempt the appetite, please the taste and nourish the body. Crisp, clean and fresh—5 cents in the moisture-proof package.

Baronet Biscuit

Round, thin, tender—with a delightful flavor—appropriate for luncheon, tea and dinner. 10 cents.

Zu Zu

Prince of appetizers. Makes daily trips from Ginger-Snap Land to waiting mouths everywhere. Say Zu Zu to the grocer man, 5 cents.

Buy biscuit baked by NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY
Always look for that name

Ohio suffragists are asking for another suffrage election this fall.

W. J. Bryan has issued a second defense of the treaty proposed with Colombia.

Bart and Jim Cantrell of Hall county, Ga., were hanged yesterday for the murder of Arthur Hawkins a year ago.

$6.50 (Lingerie Dresses $4.50. The $7.50 Dresses $5.50. White and colors. A few $10.00 Linen Suits $6.50. New Smart models. Hunt's.

NOTICE OF SCHOOL ELECTION IN DOVER DISTRICT

Notice is hereby given that an election will be held at the School building in Educational Division No. 1, Sub-Division No. 2, on the 1st day of August, 1914, from one o'clock p. m. upon the question of whether or not a tax of fifteen cents shall be levied on each $100 of taxable property for local school purposes.

By order of the County Board of Education of Mason County.
JESSIE O. YANCEY, Chairman.
C. F. OWENS, Secretary.

THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Every woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Secretary Danahy signed the contract plans for the three new battleships authorized by Congress this year.

More than 3,000 persons were drowned and $4,000,000 worth of property was destroyed by floods in the province of Kwang-Tung, China.

BIG CAMPMEETING

Ruggles Never So Enjoyable As at Present and the Crowds Are Immense

Ruggles Campgrounds, July 30, 1914.—The memorial service was held this morning at the usual hour for morning worship. This service is the big week-day service of the campmeeting. The past year has seen the departing for the better country of many who have been campers in former days. Not since the campmeeting began has there been so many ministers pass away. Six have answered the last call during the year as follows: Bishop J. M. Walden, Rev. H. J. Ramey, Stanley O. Royal, John College, O. R. Frenger, and W. Alanzo Hoover. These ministers will all be remembered as men who each in his own way done something towards the success of the campmeeting. This is especially so of Brother Ramey who was one of the founders, and Brother Frenger, who as presiding elder, had charge of the services for several years. The wives of two of our ministers have died during the year: Mrs. H. J. Cooper and Mrs. W. T. Childers. Others who have died during the year are Joseph J. Walker, Isaiah Grigsby, Mrs. Alma Rigger Garvey, Newton C. Rudy, Mrs. Newton C. Rudy, Mrs. Fannie Kelly Foxworthy, Miss Bettie Barnall, Mrs. Minnie Saunders, and Mrs. Ann Saunders.

Rev. O. J. Carder of Paintsville was selected to preach the memorial sermon. Brother Carder gave a very helpful and comforting sermon from the theme "The Soul's Dwelling Place."

After the memorial service the regular communion service was administered by Rev. W. H. Dickerson, assisted by Revs. Harrop, Bunton, Jolly and Hill. In this blessed service nearly everyone present joined, irrespective of denominational differences.

Rev. J. M. Litteral led the early prayer service today which was held in the children's chapel on account of the cool weather that has at last come to our relief.

The Girls Club met at 9 a. m. with Miss Hurd in charge. This work goes on encouragingly.

Dr. Bunton gave his sixth doctrinal address this afternoon from the theme "Where Are the Dead?" It seemed a providence that the memorial service and the reading of the roll of our honored dead should be preceded by Dr. Bunton's address on the "Immortality of the Soul;" and followed by the theme "Where Are the Dead?" During this afternoon's service three fine young people gave Dr. Bunton their hand in token of their determination to lead Christian lives.

Mrs. Eugene Davis is here today the guest of her daughter and family, Mrs. Johnston Kelly.

Frank M. Allen is out today for a visit with us.

More than once we have commented on the effective work being done by Miss Hurd in the children's meetings. Every day this work is more evident. At the meeting this afternoon, Rev. Lewis the evangelist invited Miss Hurd to bring her little folks in a body to the evening service and let the children take the place of the choir and sing. The invitation was accepted, and at the sound of the bell nearly a hundred children marched to the music of "Onward Christian Soldiers" around the tabernacle like Gideon's army of old, then to the choir platform where they delighted everyone with their sweet young voices in the singing. After the song service Dr. Lewis preached a very simple and plain, yet very attractive sermon on the theme "The Essential Facts to Salvation." When the invitation was given to surrender to Christ six of the children and one woman came to the altar and were converted. It was a beautiful service. Nearly a thousand persons were present.

For Sunday the last and big day of the campmeeting, the order of services will be as follows: The usual morning prayers; praise service at 9 a. m., led by I. M. Lane; preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; by Bishop Moore of Indianapolis; preaching by Rev. G. W. Bunton, D. D., at 2:30 p. m.; Woman's and Children's service at 1:30 p. m. Such a program of religious services should make everyone want to come.

Miss Pauline Pollitt of Maysville arrived today and is a guest of Mrs. S. J. Moody.

Mrs. J. D. Tonery and children of Tolesboro, are now campers, guests at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Henderson.

Mr. George Millon has returned from Mexico where he has been for some time. He is the guest of Miss Lena Henderson. The camp awaited in vain this evening for the big auto. About 7:30 a. m. S. O. S. message was received by Dr. Bunton. The auto was in distress down about Plumville. Dr. Bunton and J. Luther Markwell started immediately in their machines to bring in the seven passengers that were on the big auto. We have hoped to give the result of the census today, but on account of some errors that could not be corrected in time, we defer to report until tomorrow.

The Kentucky breeder of live stock can not bring his stock before the public attention better than by taking a premium at the Kentucky State Fair.

SECOND ELECTION CALLED

Forty Thousand Asked for New School House at Ripley.

Ripley, Ohio.—A second election has been called for purpose of determining what shall be done toward erection of a new school building.

This time the bond issue asked is $40,000.

The cry raised during the last campaign was that the amount was too great and the School Board after canvassing the situation came to the present conclusion.

The election will be held next Tuesday.

FORGOT HIS WIFE UP IN A CHERRY TREE

Frau Left All Afternoon Was Said To Have Been Sweetly Possessed When Relieved from Position.

Blumebacher, Ohio.—Owen Brown is undoubtedly afflicted with the same failing that ninety-nine out of every hundred husbands is—that when he takes up the discussion of either national or local politics with his acquaintances he is unaware of how time slips away. Last week he assisted his wife up into a cherry tree and went up town, promising that he would return in a short time. When he got down town he fell into the company of J. R. Ross and Alex. Sesson. When Owen finished with them he found that it was late in the evening. He hurried home to find his wife still sitting in the tree awaiting his arrival. He assisted her down and says, to square himself, that she wasn't mind either.

WONDER WORKS OF WOMANKIND

To Be Exhibited in Lavish Array at the Kentucky State Fair—Winners Will Be Queens of Art, Needle and Culinary Realms.

Every art and craft known to the realm of humanity will be represented in the exhibition of handicraft to be shown at the twelfth annual Kentucky State Fair September 14-19.

The premium list for 1914 has been greatly enlarged and augmented, and the result will doubtless be the most attractive showing in the history of the fair. The exhibition this year will be in charge of Mrs. Thomas Smith, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs and she will be assisted by the latter in charge of the arts and crafts department.

Linen, embroideries, art work, lace, infant's outfits, all lines of culinary work and miscellaneous products will have full showing this year and the competition for the handsome prizes will be spirited.

An award in this department means far more to the recipient than the monetary consideration, recording as it does the supremacy of the triumphant exhibitors over the most expert competitors in the entire state and preserving to posterity a proof of dexterity in either art, needle or culinary craft which is well worth striving for.

PROGRAM

Of Mason County Christian Bible School Convention at Mill Creek Christian Church, August 6th, 1914.

MORNING

- 9:30—Devotional—Conducted by H. J. Rice, Superintendent Mill Creek School.
- 9:50—President's Address—A. F. Stahl.
- 10:10—"The Bible in the Bible School"—Henry Schubert.
- 10:20—"The Bible School as a Factor in Missions"—Mae Finch.
- 10:30—"The Bible School as a Factor in Temperance"—M. C. Daily.
- 10:40—Debate. Resolved that the Front Rank Standard is necessary to the best interests of the Bible School. Affirmed by State Worker, Denied by W. J. Loos.
- 11:30—Appointment of Committees.
- 11:35—Address—Annual message from the State Worker.
- 12:00—Announcements and Roll Call.
- 12:15—Closing Prayer.
- Dinner Enriched by Mill Creek Church

AFTERNOON

- 1:15—Praise Service.
- 1:30—Business Session.
 - (a) Secretary's report.
 - (b) Report of Committees.
 - (c) Convention Offering.
- General Topic—"Psychology in the Bible School."
- 2:00—The Child Under Nine.
 - (a) Gracie Rull—Mrs. J. M. Young.
 - (b) Beginners—Miss Dorothy Douglas.
 - (c) Primary—Mrs. Henry Hughes.
- 2:20—Juniors (9-12)—Mrs. Fannie Davis.
- 2:30—The Teen Age—J. L. Finnell.
- 2:40—The graded lesson—The State Worker.
- 2:45—A series of Demonstrations on how to teach children of these different ages. Both right and wrong way given. Mill Creek classes used.
- 3:35—The Home Department—J. T. Kaackley.
- 3:45—Closing words by State Worker.
- 4:00—Closing prayer.
- The Mill Creek Church and Bible School extend a welcome to all.
- A. F. STAHL, President.
- MISS VIVIAN LOUDERBAOK, Sec.

LOW? INTERMEDIATE? HIGH? What Speed Are You Hitting?

Some satisfaction in High Speed. You feel right on edge—go at your work with a snap—life is worth while. Your stomach and bowels must be right and appetite good. In fact, your digestive apparatus is the real secret. So is the Flour made in the most sanitary mill in the world—

"JEFFERSON" Crushed Wheat Flour

M. C. RUSSELL CO.

ROOFING AND WIRE FENCE

WE HAVE PRICES AND QUALITY

J. C. EVERETT & CO.

JOHN W. PORTER, FUNERAL DIRECTOR.

17 West Second St., MAYSVILLE, KY.

MAX MIDDLEMAN TRANSFER CO.

Transfer and General Hauling. We make a specialty of large contracts. Office and barn 180 East Second street. Phone 145 and 228.

EDWIN MATTHEWS DENTIST.

Suite 1, First National Bank Building. MAYSVILLE, KY. Local and Long Office No. 556. Distance Phone (Residence No. 137).

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR CONGRESS. We are authorized to announce Hon. W. J. Fields of Carter County as a candidate for re-election to Congress from the 10th District, subject to the Democratic primary to be held on August 1st, 1914. He most respectfully so solicits your support.

Leave	Arrive
10:40 a. m.	12:55 p. m.
11:10 a. m.	1:25 p. m.
11:15 p. m.	10:00 a. m.
11:30 p. m.	9:15 p. m.
*Daily (except Sundays)
*H. B. ELLIS, Agent.

Chesapeake & Ohio Railway.

Schedule effective Nov. 30, 1913. Subject to change without notice. TRAINS LEAVE MAYSVILLE, KY. Westward—8:30 a. m., 8:47 a. m., 8:13 p. m., daily. 9:30 a. m., 8:16 a. m., week-days local. 5:00 p. m., daily, local. Eastward—1:40 p. m., 8:18 p. m., 10:47 p. m., daily. 9:20 a. m., 8:30 p. m., week-days.

CAMERA AND KODAK SUPPLIES

DEVELOPING AND PRINTING

Seneca, Pixie and Scout Cameras. If you do not own a kodak we can save you money. The lens and the shutter are most important. Come in and we will convince you that our cameras are equalled by none. Your films will be developed and printed promptly and satisfactorily.

JOHN C. PECOR 22 West Second Street

GLASS EYE THAT MOVES

Philadelphia.—Dr. R. C. Heed has accomplished the hitherto impossible feat of substituting an artificial eye for an injured one and enabling the patient by means of the insertion of a gold sphere, to move the artificial eye in perfect synchronism with the good eye.

How's This?

Wentworth One Hundred Dollars Reward for any one who can cure that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We have the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honest in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him. WALKING, KINMAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

WASHINGTON THEATER.

TONIGHT

HERBERT PRIOR, MABEL TRUNNELLE AND ANNA LEONARD. —IN— "THE VOICE OF SILENCE" Edison Drama. "RED HEAD AND MA'S SUITORS" Selig Comedy. "THE LOVE ROUTE" VIA PITTMAN. S. & A. Drama. MATINEE TODAY.

ADMISSION 5c

$15 FOR THIS GENUINE Victor-Victrola

PAY CASH FOR YOUR RECORDS and $1 per week on the Victrola and we will place this machine in your home. It has concealed sounding board, modifying doors, tapering tone arm and exhibition sound box.

NEW LINE OF VICTROLAS $15, $25, 40, $50, $75, $100, $200

MURPHY'S Jewelry Store.

Plenty of

Bunch Beans

and

Sugar Corn

For Seed.

Now is the Time to Plant

R. B. LOVEL, THE LEADING GROCER, Wholesale and Retail. PHONE 133

The MAD of the FOREST

By RANDALL PARRISH
ILLUSTRATED BY D. J. LAVIN
COPYRIGHT A.C. McCLURG & CO., 1915

CHAPTER XX—Continued.

It was all over with so quickly I could scarcely realize what had actually occurred. Then I laughed and swore, my nerves dancing like so many demons. They were gone—gone! Those merciless red devils, those accursed murderers, those fiends in human guise. Nor was it likely they would stop in their mad flight until they dropped from sheer exhaustion, or the dawn of another day brought with it fresh courage.

And those others, who were yet there—Brady, tied still to the stake, the flames already licking the fangs at his feet, and immodestly praying to the Virgin—what would they think? Would they know, understand, what had really occurred, or had the terrible spectacle left them in an unbroken terror? The thought awoke me as from a stupor, and I turned about. The ground was a jumble of things, as if I looked upon a battle field, yet this was not what I really saw in that first swift glance. A man—a white man—ran leaping across the flame-lit opening, kicking aside the blazing faggots of wood already scorching Brady, burling them to right and left in frantic haste, until he made passage through.

He made passage through. He caught the glimmer of a knife in his hand; and then, by main strength, he dragged the weakened prisoner clear of the burning wood, and dropped him exhausted on the ground. As the fellow stood erect, staring about him, at the helpless huddle at his feet, at the white face of the girl, at the debris on every side, I recognized Simon Girty.

"Saints alive! What does all this mean?" he cried, grabbing up the gun dropped in his first swift effort at rescue. "You 'Runnin' Water?' ay! and this is the Kentuckian who would have killed me. What's happened here? It looks like a shambles. Never before did I see a man burning himself. Who killed these—merciful God! What is that?"

His voice rose into a shriek as he stared at me, while I advanced toward him. With one terrified leap he sprang back, throwing up his rifle, but with hands shaking so that I laughed outright. The sound coming unexpectedly from such ghastly lips must have been more horrible than a groan, for the frightened man dashed his weapon to the ground, and turned to run. His foot struck Brady's body and he went down, scrambling to his knees. I saw the old scout's head uplifted, the trembling girl bury her face in her hands, as if to shut out the sight.

"Don't run; there is nothing to be afraid of," I cried hastily, stopping still in my tracks to better reassure them. "I am no ghost, but a friend. Hear me, mademoiselle!"

CHAPTER XXI.

Through the Black Night. She dropped her hands from before her eyes, and, holding out the white cross gleaming in the firelight, came slowly forward. A yard from me she stopped, hesitating, not even yet thoroughly convinced of my identity.

"Is it really you, Joseph Hayward?" her lips faltered. "Tell me, I beg you, for—I was never so frightened in my life."

"There is nothing for you to fear, mademoiselle," I said quickly, regretful enough to have startled her so. "I am Joseph Hayward, the American."

"What is it, Brady?" There was a faint muttering, but I distinguished the words.

"Was—that—Simon Girty?" "Yes."

"The—the man—who, who—cut me down?" "Yes."

"What—what is he now?" "Right here; you want to speak to him—oh, Girty?"

The renegade came toward us, and the eyes of the two borderers met. For a long moment they looked at each other, many a memory, no doubt, flashing between them. Then Brady held out a blackened hand.

"You saved my life, Simon Girty," he said with an effort. "I—I never thought to—shake hands with you—but—but I'm a goin' to."

Girty's ugly face broke into a smile. "No more did I," he admitted grimly. "We ain't generally been in no shakin' hands mood when we've met heretofore. Still, I reckon, we're about even up in kin for that shake if we want. Think yer kin travel a bit, Brady?"

"How far?" "To the foot of the lake; to a Wyandot camp."

The hunter's eyes wandered from his face to mine.

"I—I reckon I can," he mumbled at last. "I—ain't hurt so much, only bruised up." His glance fell upon his feet. "Maybe I—I had some whole moccasins I'd get along better."

"We'll fix that," and Girty laughed. "I reckon that's what them dead Indians is lying there for."

He stepped across to the nearest body, fumbled a moment, and came back, dropping on his knees. Deftly and quickly he cut the burned leather from the wounded man's feet, touching the blackened flesh gingerly with his fingers, and slipped on the new moccasins.

"You're not scorched much, friend. Hurts some, I reckon, but a couple o' days will put you all right agin."

out into fuller view. "Do you know me now?"

He stared, uncertain, into my clay-streaked face, his eyes narrowed into mere slits.

"Maybe I do, an' maybe I don't," he admitted at last obstinately. "Yer're like the lad who guided me into Har-mar, but yer a sight for all that. If yer had yer face washed, an' more hair showin' I could judge better. What's all this play-actin' about anyhow? Though 't wasn't much play in it for me, I reckon," pointing to Brady, "when I got here. A minute afore, an' the man would have been sheeted in flame."

I stepped toward him, amazed to see the man shrink back, half startled still at my wild decoration, and dropped a hand heavily on his shoulder.

"Does that feel like the grip of a phantom, you fool?" I asked sharply. "If it does I'll shut down tighter still for your benefit. My tale can wait its telling until we be well out of here. There will be time enough then to satisfy your curiosity. Those fellows may get over their fright and come back."

"What fellows?"

"A mixed band of Minnia, Ojibwas and Shawnees—mostly Shawnees with a chief named Sie-to-wah."

"Ib! So it was those devils? The same gang I left at the foot of the island. But there were no Shawnees with them then. Sie-to-wah, did you say? I know the rascal, but never before did I hear of him being bold enough for such a deed. What stirred him to it?"

"There was a white man with them."

"Ah! Now we have the truth—a red-coat?" and his eyes were on my jacket.

"No more one—stolen no doubt—but was no soldier. Mademoiselle knew the man, a ruffian called Jules Lapin."

He gazed into my face a minute and laughed, snapping his knee in sudden merriment.

"Lord! But that's a good one, boy! By the Lord Harry! 'T was a fine joke. But maybe we better move, friend, for he would not be in good humor if he did come, and I am scarcely in better grace with him than you."

"Go where?"

"To join my party. Did yer think I likely I was here alone? I'll tell yer the whole of it in a word. I found the warriors of the Wyandots marching on, an' joined them. I have you heard it was war? Ay! There's no stopping now; the tribes have taken the trail, the tomahawks are bloody."

"T is said St. Clair has left Har-mar already, and there will be fighting on the Wabash, Pish! It is easy to guess how it will end."

"Where are your Indians?"

"At the foot of the lake. I scouted up the shore as far as the ford; saw the blaze of fire over here and crept up through the woods to investigate. Then somebody fired a gun, and I ran forward. This is what I found. He waved his hand about the open space."

"Now you understand. I reckon the best thing for us to do is to get out."

I looked down at Brady doubtfully; then stepped over beside him.

"How is he, mademoiselle?" I asked.

"Can he talk at all?"

"If you bend close to his lips you can hear his words," she answered glancing up at my face. The hunter's eyes were bright; he seemed to be trying to speak, and I dropped on my knees beside her.

"What is it, Brady?"

"There was a faint muttering, but I distinguished the words."

"Was—that—Simon Girty?" "Yes."

"The—the man—who, who—cut me down?" "Yes."

"What—what is he now?" "Right here; you want to speak to him—oh, Girty?"

The renegade came toward us, and the eyes of the two borderers met. For a long moment they looked at each other, many a memory, no doubt, flashing between them. Then Brady held out a blackened hand.

"You saved my life, Simon Girty," he said with an effort. "I—I never thought to—shake hands with you—but—but I'm a goin' to."

Girty's ugly face broke into a smile. "No more did I," he admitted grimly. "We ain't generally been in no shakin' hands mood when we've met heretofore. Still, I reckon, we're about even up in kin for that shake if we want. Think yer kin travel a bit, Brady?"

"How far?" "To the foot of the lake; to a Wyandot camp."

The hunter's eyes wandered from his face to mine.

"I—I reckon I can," he mumbled at last. "I—ain't hurt so much, only bruised up." His glance fell upon his feet. "Maybe I—I had some whole moccasins I'd get along better."

"We'll fix that," and Girty laughed. "I reckon that's what them dead Indians is lying there for."

He stepped across to the nearest body, fumbled a moment, and came back, dropping on his knees. Deftly and quickly he cut the burned leather from the wounded man's feet, touching the blackened flesh gingerly with his fingers, and slipped on the new moccasins.

oatly. At first view I deemed them hostile, but a word from the girl made them friendly enough.

It was the fourth day, on the banks of the Maumee, that we came straggling into the Indian encampment, and passed through bowling hordes, who struck at us in spite of the guards. The word passed that one of the white prisoners was Stephen Brady caused them to press about us so close that we were fairly hounded into the mass.

Infuriated faces on every side, the wild shrieking making an indescribable din. The situation was becoming serious, for the guards cared little what befell us, when Girty, accompanied by three Wyandot chiefs and a white man in British uniform, fought passage through the crowd, and by threats and blows, won way for us through the village. The extent of this surprised me, and gave me a new conception of the power of those northwest Indian tribes. There were hundreds, perhaps thousands, gathered there, for we only traversed one end of the encampment, the warriors of tribes whose homes were as far away as the great lakes and the big rivers. There were few wigwags erected, not more than two or three standing in the shadow of trees close beside the river. Big as the encampment was, it was no permanent village, but a mere rendezvous for the various tribes allied for war.

To one of these, covered with deer skin and rendered hideous by tribal totems, we were taken, and thrust within. At last we were alone, Brady and I, although we could still hear the yelling without. He lay extended on his litter, and I dropped to the ground, thoroughly exhausted from the rough but-ting through which I had passed.

"And then?" I asked breathlessly, as she stopped to glance behind.

"A quarter of a mile below, at the end of the village, around a sharp bend, Girty will have a canoe tied to a tree that overhangs the water. It will be in shadow, and concealed by brush. He has promised to put into it food, paddles and one gun. You must hide during daylight—are you sure you understand all?"

"Yes; that is clear, but I must ask a question—where is St. Clair?"

"I do not know exactly, but he is marching toward the little Wabash; he seeks to destroy the Miami towns."

"With what force?"

"Less than two thousand, the scouts say. He only expects to meet the Indians of the Wabash."

A head was thrust through the flap, and a gruff voice spoke in a strange language. The girl's fingers pressed mine firmly, and then she turned and went out in silence. As she passed out of the opening her hand dropped the skin, leaving the interior in darkness.

I stood motionless, listening to the many sounds without, hardly conscious yet that she had gone. The hot blood was throbbing in my veins, but it was caused by no thought of the dangers confronting me. At that moment she alone occupied my mind. Then slowly her message occurred, forcing its way into my consciousness with its silence. Tonight—our escape must be made within two short hours.

I stepped forward to awaken Brady, but now, with my brain cleared, a sudden suspicion came. Was this honest planning? Was the desire back of it actually our escape? Or was it born of treachery? Not for an instant did I question her purity and truth of her purpose—but Simon Girty. Why should he scheme to help us? Never before had I heard his name spoken as one harbinger of mercy to the frontier. I recalled his ugly face, his narrow, furtive eyes, and my doubt of him increased. The plan was too good, too well timed, to be altogether natural.

I shook Brady awake, told him all that had occurred, so far as related to our effort, but without voicing my suspicion.

"Twice we started at the distant boom of an owl, but it was not repeated. Then, at last, the signal came, sound ing near at hand, from somewhere down the stream, Brady went first, worming his way silently beneath the flap, and the instant he disappeared, I followed. There was a slight gully to our left, and we crept into it, keeping down out of the gleam of fire. Lying side by side at the edge of the water he put his lips close to my ear.

"On your back, and, with only the nose out, stroke easy, and let the current carry you down."

(TO BE CONTINUED)

A Head Was Thrust Through the Flap and a Gruff Voice Spoke.

of the opening her hand dropped the skin, leaving the interior in darkness.

I stood motionless, listening to the many sounds without, hardly conscious yet that she had gone. The hot blood was throbbing in my veins, but it was caused by no thought of the dangers confronting me. At that moment she alone occupied my mind. Then slowly her message occurred, forcing its way into my consciousness with its silence. Tonight—our escape must be made within two short hours.

I stepped forward to awaken Brady, but now, with my brain cleared, a sudden suspicion came. Was this honest planning? Was the desire back of it actually our escape? Or was it born of treachery? Not for an instant did I question her purity and truth of her purpose—but Simon Girty. Why should he scheme to help us? Never before had I heard his name spoken as one harbinger of mercy to the frontier. I recalled his ugly face, his narrow, furtive eyes, and my doubt of him increased. The plan was too good, too well timed, to be altogether natural.

I shook Brady awake, told him all that had occurred, so far as related to our effort, but without voicing my suspicion.

"Twice we started at the distant boom of an owl, but it was not repeated. Then, at last, the signal came, sound ing near at hand, from somewhere down the stream, Brady went first, worming his way silently beneath the flap, and the instant he disappeared, I followed. There was a slight gully to our left, and we crept into it, keeping down out of the gleam of fire. Lying side by side at the edge of the water he put his lips close to my ear.

"On your back, and, with only the nose out, stroke easy, and let the current carry you down."

(TO BE CONTINUED)

A Head Was Thrust Through the Flap and a Gruff Voice Spoke.

of the opening her hand dropped the skin, leaving the interior in darkness.

I stood motionless, listening to the many sounds without, hardly conscious yet that she had gone. The hot blood was throbbing in my veins, but it was caused by no thought of the dangers confronting me. At that moment she alone occupied my mind. Then slowly her message occurred, forcing its way into my consciousness with its silence. Tonight—our escape must be made within two short hours.

I stepped forward to awaken Brady, but now, with my brain cleared, a sudden suspicion came. Was this honest planning? Was the desire back of it actually our escape? Or was it born of treachery? Not for an instant did I question her purity and truth of her purpose—but Simon Girty. Why should he scheme to help us? Never before had I heard his name spoken as one harbinger of mercy to the frontier. I recalled his ugly face, his narrow, furtive eyes, and my doubt of him increased. The plan was too good, too well timed, to be altogether natural.

I shook Brady awake, told him all that had occurred, so far as related to our effort, but without voicing my suspicion.

"Twice we started at the distant boom of an owl, but it was not repeated. Then, at last, the signal came, sound ing near at hand, from somewhere down the stream, Brady went first, worming his way silently beneath the flap, and the instant he disappeared, I followed. There was a slight gully to our left, and we crept into it, keeping down out of the gleam of fire. Lying side by side at the edge of the water he put his lips close to my ear.

"On your back, and, with only the nose out, stroke easy, and let the current carry you down."

(TO BE CONTINUED)

A Head Was Thrust Through the Flap and a Gruff Voice Spoke.

of the opening her hand dropped the skin, leaving the interior in darkness.

I stood motionless, listening to the many sounds without, hardly conscious yet that she had gone. The hot blood was throbbing in my veins, but it was caused by no thought of the dangers confronting me. At that moment she alone occupied my mind. Then slowly her message occurred, forcing its way into my consciousness with its silence. Tonight—our escape must be made within two short hours.

I stepped forward to awaken Brady, but now, with my brain cleared, a sudden suspicion came. Was this honest planning? Was the desire back of it actually our escape? Or was it born of treachery? Not for an instant did I question her purity and truth of her purpose—but Simon Girty. Why should he scheme to help us? Never before had I heard his name spoken as one harbinger of mercy to the frontier. I recalled his ugly face, his narrow, furtive eyes, and my doubt of him increased. The plan was too good, too well timed, to be altogether natural.

I shook Brady awake, told him all that had occurred, so far as related to our effort, but without voicing my suspicion.

"Twice we started at the distant boom of an owl, but it was not repeated. Then, at last, the signal came, sound ing near at hand, from somewhere down the stream, Brady went first, worming his way silently beneath the flap, and the instant he disappeared, I followed. There was a slight gully to our left, and we crept into it, keeping down out of the gleam of fire. Lying side by side at the edge of the water he put his lips close to my ear.

"On your back, and, with only the nose out, stroke easy, and let the current carry you down."

The guards are Wyandots, and I had only to ask the chief to let me dress Monsieur Brady's wounds. He had not been warned against me, and suspected nothing. The Englishman who was left in command was led by Girty to the other end of the village. When the chief sought him, he was not to be found, and so I was given permission."

She stepped silently back to the entrance, and glanced out into the firelight, returning as swiftly to clasp my sleeve.

"Listen, monsieur; I must speak fast, for I know not who may suspect us. Now mark every word, for 't is a desperate chance. Two hours from now be ready. We must work tonight, while Hamilton is away. I will somehow draw the guard away from this side—here, next to river, monsieur. When you hear an owl howl three times creep beneath the skins and down the bank to the water's edge. You must move like foxes, for there will be sleeping warriors to pass. Go down stream."

"And then?" I asked breathlessly, as she stopped to glance behind.

"A quarter of a mile below, at the end of the village, around a sharp bend, Girty will have a canoe tied to a tree that overhangs the water. It will be in shadow, and concealed by brush. He has promised to put into it food, paddles and one gun. You must hide during daylight—are you sure you understand all?"

"Yes; that is clear, but I must ask a question—where is St. Clair?"

"I do not know exactly, but he is marching toward the little Wabash; he seeks to destroy the Miami towns."

"With what force?"

"Less than two thousand, the scouts say. He only expects to meet the Indians of the Wabash."

A head was thrust through the flap, and a gruff voice spoke in a strange language. The girl's fingers pressed mine firmly, and then she turned and went out in silence. As she passed out of the opening her hand dropped the skin, leaving the interior in darkness.

I stood motionless, listening to the many sounds without, hardly conscious yet that she had gone. The hot blood was throbbing in my veins, but it was caused by no thought of the dangers confronting me. At that moment she alone occupied my mind. Then slowly her message occurred, forcing its way into my consciousness with its silence. Tonight—our escape must be made within two short hours.

I stepped forward to awaken Brady, but now, with my brain cleared, a sudden suspicion came. Was this honest planning? Was the desire back of it actually our escape? Or was it born of treachery? Not for an instant did I question her purity and truth of her purpose—but Simon Girty. Why should he scheme to help us? Never before had I heard his name spoken as one harbinger of mercy to the frontier. I recalled his ugly face, his narrow, furtive eyes, and my doubt of him increased. The plan was too good, too well timed, to be altogether natural.

I shook Brady awake, told him all that had occurred, so far as related to our effort, but without voicing my suspicion.

"Twice we started at the distant boom of an owl, but it was not repeated. Then, at last, the signal came, sound ing near at hand, from somewhere down the stream, Brady went first, worming his way silently beneath the flap, and the instant he disappeared, I followed. There was a slight gully to our left, and we crept into it, keeping down out of the gleam of fire. Lying side by side at the edge of the water he put his lips close to my ear.

"On your back, and, with only the nose out, stroke easy, and let the current carry you down."

(TO BE CONTINUED)

A Head Was Thrust Through the Flap and a Gruff Voice Spoke.

of the opening her hand dropped the skin, leaving the interior in darkness.

I stood motionless, listening to the many sounds without, hardly conscious yet that she had gone. The hot blood was throbbing in my veins, but it was caused by no thought of the dangers confronting me. At that moment she alone occupied my mind. Then slowly her message occurred, forcing its way into my consciousness with its silence. Tonight—our escape must be made within two short hours.

I stepped forward to awaken Brady, but now, with my brain cleared, a sudden suspicion came. Was this honest planning? Was the desire back of it actually our escape? Or was it born of treachery? Not for an instant did I question her purity and truth of her purpose—but Simon Girty. Why should he scheme to help us? Never before had I heard his name spoken as one harbinger of mercy to the frontier. I recalled his ugly face, his narrow, furtive eyes, and my doubt of him increased. The plan was too good, too well timed, to be altogether natural.

I shook Brady awake, told him all that had occurred, so far as related to our effort, but without voicing my suspicion.

"Twice we started at the distant boom of an owl, but it was not repeated. Then, at last, the signal came, sound ing near at hand, from somewhere down the stream, Brady went first, worming his way silently beneath the flap, and the instant he disappeared, I followed. There was a slight gully to our left, and we crept into it, keeping down out of the gleam of fire. Lying side by side at the edge of the water he put his lips close to my ear.

"On your back, and, with only the nose out, stroke easy, and let the current carry you down."

(TO BE CONTINUED)

A Head Was Thrust Through the Flap and a Gruff Voice Spoke.

of the opening her hand dropped the skin, leaving the interior in darkness.

I stood motionless, listening to the many sounds without, hardly conscious yet that she had gone. The hot blood was throbbing in my veins, but it was caused by no thought of the dangers confronting me. At that moment she alone occupied my mind. Then slowly her message occurred, forcing its way into my consciousness with its silence. Tonight—our escape must be made within two short hours.

I stepped forward to awaken Brady, but now, with my brain cleared, a sudden suspicion came. Was this honest planning? Was the desire back of it actually our escape? Or was it born of treachery? Not for an instant did I question her purity and truth of her purpose—but Simon Girty. Why should he scheme to help us? Never before had I heard his name spoken as one harbinger of mercy to the frontier. I recalled his ugly face, his narrow, furtive eyes, and my doubt of him increased. The plan was too good, too well timed, to be altogether natural.

I shook Brady awake, told him all that had occurred, so far as related to our effort, but without voicing my suspicion.

"Twice we started at the distant boom of an owl, but it was not repeated. Then, at last, the signal came, sound ing near at hand, from somewhere down the stream, Brady went first, worming his way silently beneath the flap, and the instant he disappeared, I followed. There was a slight gully to our left, and we crept into it, keeping down out of the gleam of fire. Lying side by side at the edge of the water he put his lips close to my ear.

"On your back, and, with only the nose out, stroke easy, and let the current carry you down."

(TO BE CONTINUED)

A Head Was Thrust Through the Flap and a Gruff Voice Spoke.

of the opening her hand dropped the skin, leaving the interior in darkness.

I stood motionless, listening to the many sounds without, hardly conscious yet that she had gone. The hot blood was throbbing in my veins, but it was caused by no thought of the dangers confronting me. At that moment she alone occupied my mind. Then slowly her message occurred, forcing its way into my consciousness with its silence. Tonight—our escape must be made within two short hours.

I stepped forward to awaken Brady, but now, with my brain cleared, a sudden suspicion came. Was this honest planning? Was the desire back of it actually our escape? Or was it born of treachery? Not for an instant did I question her purity and truth of her purpose—but Simon Girty. Why should he scheme to help us? Never before had I heard his name spoken as one harbinger of mercy to the frontier. I recalled his ugly face, his narrow, furtive eyes, and my doubt of him increased. The plan was too good, too well timed, to be altogether natural.

I shook Brady awake, told him all that had occurred, so far as related to our effort, but without voicing my suspicion.

"Twice we started at the distant boom of an owl, but it was not repeated. Then, at last, the signal came, sound ing near at hand, from somewhere down the stream, Brady went first, worming his way silently beneath the flap, and the instant he disappeared, I followed. There was a slight gully to our left, and we crept into it, keeping down out of the gleam of fire. Lying side by side at the edge of the water he put his lips close to my ear.

"On your back, and, with only the nose out, stroke easy, and let the current carry you down."

(TO BE CONTINUED)

A Head Was Thrust Through the Flap and a Gruff Voice Spoke.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. BELL, Editor, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR AUGUST 2

THE TRIUMPHAL ENTRY.

LESSON TEXT—Mark 11:1-11. GOLDEN TEXT—"Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem, because thy king cometh unto thee." Zechar. 9:9 R. V.

Mark devotes 233 verses to his account of the last week of our Lord's life and 425 to all the balance. Matthew devotes seven chapters and Luke five. If all of the life of Jesus had been given to us in like ratio it would have taken at least 80 volumes in which to tell us the story.

Today's lesson is the introduction to that week. We must consider his entry in its light upon the whole movement of his life. His instructions how to secure the colt seem to indicate his intention to provoke a demonstration. Though often in Jerusalem before, this was a different occasion, and for a different purpose. Before he did not provoke his conflicts, now he courts publicity, that he may fasten his claims upon the attention of all.

Test of Faith.

1. "The Lord hath need of him," vv. 1-7. It was a test of faith for these disciples to obey the Lord's command (v. 2), yet they did precisely what they were commanded to do (v. 8). Obedience is the supreme test of discipleship, John 15:14. When the disciples entered the village (v. 1) they found the colt "whereon no man ever yet sat." Jesus knew all and had the keys to the human heart. Perhaps this colt belonged to a disciple, hence the willingness

DO YOU SAVE MONEY EVERY TIME YOU CAN?

If you do now is your opportunity while the special price sale is being made for a few days on New Suits.

$20.00 Suits Now $15.00
$18.00 Suits Now $12.50
$15.00 Suits Now $10.50
$12.50 Suits Now $ 8.75
$10.00 Suits Now $ 7.50
$ 5.00 Panama Hats $3.50

Geo. H. Frank & Co.
Maysville's Foremost Clothiers

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Perrine spent Friday with friends in Augusta.

Big reductions in Redfern and Warner Corsets, 18's, 19's. Hunt's.

DRIVE WHEAT PRICES DOWN IN CHICAGO

After Rise of 9 Cents, Exporters Alarmed Over Possible Tie-Up Or Shipping.

Chicago.—Contrary to all previous experience, wheat prices in the final dealings here were being driven not up but down by prospects that the Austro-Serbian war would spread.

After a rise of 9 cents in thirty minutes, largely on account of hold assertions that the bulk of the surplus crop of the United States, instead of being rushed to Europe, might be held in this country as a result of general war disrupting all ocean trade.

We like the children and our studio is theirs while they are with us.

By making them feel at home we secure pictures of them that are natural—true to life. Bring that little one of yours to us NOW.

Brosee

The Photographer in Your Town.

POLICE COURT

Two cases occupied the attention of Police Judge Whitaker yesterday. Henry Taylor, colored, charged with breach of the peace, $6.50. John Jones, drunk, $6.50.

New Panel Petticoats $1.25. New Separate Skirts, long tunics, black and colors, $6.50. Hunt's.

MORGAN ADVISES OWNERS OF U. S. STOCKS TO KEEP THEIR HEADS

New York, July 31.—J. P. Morgan today issued the following statement: "Alarming as the news is from Europe we are still hoping that there will not be a general war. While the gravity of the present situation can hardly be exaggerated there still is the opportunity for the sober second thought of the people of Europe to prevail over their first impulses. If the delicate situation can be held in abeyance for a few days, I should expect a rising tide of protest from the people who are to pay for war with their blood and their property."

"It is a time for the owners of the American securities to keep their heads, to bear in mind that actual properties represented by American securities will not suffer greatly by a European war."

Vegetables

are now coming in—more plentiful and less in price. Let us have your order today and we will give you both the difference in price and quality.

J. C. CABLISH & BRO.

Quality Grocers.

Phone 230.

Saturday at Hoeflich's

3 1/2 CENTS BUYS—Choice of a lot of Lawn worth from 5c to 8c a yard.
8 CENTS BUYS—Choice of a big lot of Crepes, Lawns, Gingham, Etc., worth up to 3 cents.
10 CENTS BUYS—Choice of all our Crepes, Voiles, Batines, worth up to 39c a yard.
Loveliest Windsor Ties in town, new Roman Stripes, Ombre and Crepes.
A stock of Ribbons beyond comparison with any in this part of Kentucky. Ribbons at 10c, 15c, 19c, and 25c; wonderfully cheap.
A stock of Laces so attractively priced that you cannot resist buying. All the newest in Val, Shadow and Net Laces.
All Summer goods greatly reduced. Some fine goods just half price.
Very Special Bargain—Choice of a lot of Children's Underwear 10 cents a garment; some were 25 cents; all worth more. Hugs specially low priced.

ROBERT L. HOEFLICH

211 and 213 MARKET STREET.

GEM TODAY!

PERFORMANCES START DAILY AT 1 P. M.

Prof. C. S. Dale and daughter, Wesa, left this morning for a visit to Gibson City, Ill., where he will spend a month with his mother, Mrs. Dale and C. S. Jr., will leave today for Petersburg, Ky., where they will enjoy a month's visit with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Larkin.

YUM! YUM! YUM!

The first wagon load of home grown watermelons from Charleston Bottom were brought in this morning by Jack McNutt and sold to J. C. Cablish & Bro. They are simply delicious. It is said the watermelon crop this season is the best in many years, as too much rain injures the vines.

THE JAP-ENGLAND ALLIANCE

The existing treaty of alliance between Great Britain and Japan, signed in 1905 and renewed in 1911, provides that the two countries shall support each other in the event of an attack or aggressive action against either in Eastern Asia or India by another power. From time to time there have been rumors of secret clauses, greatly extending the scope of the convention, and making it apply to hostilities conducted outside of the Far East, but the existence of any such extra provisions is unknown to the State Department or to the Japanese Embassy at Washington.

Mrs. Darlington E. Fee very beautifully entertained a score or more of her friends yesterday afternoon with a delightful bridge party at her elegant home in West Third street.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES

Will Charge Underwood Tariff Bill Has Failure.

Washington, D. C.—That the Underwood tariff bill has proved to be a failure, both as a revenue producer and as a reducer of the high cost of living, will be the contention of Republican aspirants for the House in all sections of the country.

The loss in revenue for the nine months of the last fiscal year, during which it was in force, was $26,000,000, and the loss for the first 28 days of this year amounts to more than $3,200,000, as compared with the same period last year.

Every housewife, it is contended, knows there has not been a reduction in the cost of living, while the farmers are keenly alive to the fact that there has been an increase in the importation of agricultural products.

Handsome Seamless Velvet Rugs only $15. Room size. Splendid pattern assortment. Hunt's.

WAR CLOSES NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

New York, July 31.—The New York Stock Exchange was closed today on account of the European situation. The Consolidated Stock Exchange and the New York curb market also ceased business. This was followed immediately by announcements of the closing of exchanges in the other chief cities throughout the country.

BASEBALL RESULTS

GAMES TODAY.

Ohio State League
Chillicothe at Lexington.
Portsmouth at Charleston.
National League
Chicago at Philadelphia.
St. Louis at Boston.
Cincinnati at New York.
Pittsburg at Brooklyn.
American League
Boston at Chicago.
Philadelphia at St. Louis.
Washington at Detroit.
New York at Cleveland.
Cleveland at St. Louis.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

Ohio State League
Lexington, 2; Chillicothe, 4.
Charleston, 10; Portsmouth, 5.
National League
Chicago, 1; Philadelphia, 8.
Cincinnati, 4; New York, 3.
Pittsburg, 3; Brooklyn, 9.
St. Louis, 0; Boston, 2.
American League
Washington, 3; Detroit, 1.
New York, 7; Cleveland, 2.
Philadelphia, 9; St. Louis, 6.
Boston, 5; Chicago, 1.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

Ohio State League
	Won	Lost	P. C.
Charleston	15	10	.600
Chillicothe	11	11	.500
Lexington	12	13	.480
Portsmouth	12	13	.480
National League
	Won	Lost	P. C.
New York	52	35	.598
Chicago	52	41	.559
St. Louis	51	44	.537
Boston	44	45	.494
Cincinnati	44	48	.478
Philadelphia	41	49	.450
Pittsburg	39	49	.443
Brooklyn	37	49	.430
American League
	Won	Lost	P. C.
Philadelphia	59	33	.641
Boston	54	41	.568
Washington	51	42	.549
Detroit	49	47	.510
Chicago	48	47	.505
St. Louis	45	48	.484
New York	42	51	.452
Cleveland	29	66	.305

"A FRIEND OF THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY"

Biograph Photoplay.
"THE COWARD AND THE MAN" Edison Drama.
"VENGEANCE IS MINE"
Lubin Drama.

THE ESSANAY COMPANY IN "PAT CASEY'S CASE"

A Comedy that Will Bring Tears of Laughter.
Music By Bullett's Orchestra.
$2.50 In Gold Given Away Tuesday Night.
WATCH FOR OUR NEXT BIG FEATURE.

Tomorrow at the Churches

Washington Presbyterian Church.
Regular services Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Everybody made welcome. Connel.

Second M. E. Church South.
Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. James Dawson, Supt.
Epworth League at 6:15.
J. W. SIMPSON, Pastor.

Church of the Nativity.
Sunday School at 9:30 a. m.
Holy Communion at 10:45 a. m.
Everyone welcome.
REV. A. H. FIELDING, Pastor.

First Presbyterian Church.
Sunday School at 9:30 a. m.
Preaching in the morning.
No services at night.
Christian Endeavor at 6:45 p. m.
All cordially invited to all services.
J. BARBOUR, Pastor.

Union Services at The First M. E. Church South.

There will be the usual morning services tomorrow at the First M. E. Church South, with sermon by the pastor. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock the Union services will be held, with Rev. J. H. Fielding of the Church of the Nativity to deliver the sermon. The public invited.

REV. M. S. CLARK, Pastor.

Christian Church.

As one of the extra features of the Bible School service, a missionary program will be given by a class of young ladies now being taught by Miss Emma Luman. The lesson for the day will be taught in the usual way and the school presided over by J. T. Kackley. We look for a good attendance.

Morning church service at 10:45 with sermon by the pastor following the communion service.
Christian Endeavor prayer meeting at 6:45. M. C. Haley is the leader. Regular evening church services at 7:30 with sermon by the pastor. A cordial welcome is given to all who attend any or all of these services.

At the morning church services, the church will elect men to fill vacancies which have largely been made by the expiration of the time of office. Every member should attend and take action following the report of the nominating committee.

A. P. STAHL, Minister.

SAYS "T. R.'S" RIVER IS OLD.

Newcastle, Pa.—"T. R.'s" river of doubt" has been "known for at least 50 years," according to Walter Davis, owner of extensive estates in Argentina.

BUSINESS MEETING OF THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.

The King's Daughters of the Episcopal Church will meet next Monday evening at 7:00 at the residence of Mrs. E. C. Thayer in West Third street.

This is to be a business meeting and all are urged to attend.

WASHINGTON WANTS G. A. R.

Washington.—The Grand Army of the Republic is to be invited to hold its annual encampment here next summer. Next year will mark the fiftieth anniversary of the review of the Grand Army in Washington at the close of the war.

WAR IN EUROPE AFFECTS TOBACCO MARKET.

(Commercial Tribune.)
The war in Europe it is expected will have a big effect in this country as far as the tobacco market is concerned, and this was the principal topic of conversation yesterday along the tobacco breaks.

Tobacco brokers yesterday in groups, after the sales on the breaks, discussed the war and all were of the opinion that the difficulties in Russia and in Austria would be a boon to the local market.

Little tobacco is raised in the foreign countries where a great deal of tobacco is used. Sales to these countries are great and now that warfare has taken up the time of the residents no tobacco will be cultivated.

St. Patrick's Church

During the summer months and until otherwise announced the services at the St. Patrick Church, Third and Lime stone streets, will be as follows:
Sundays: First Mass 7 a. m.; second Mass, 9 a. m. This service will be followed by the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. The daily Masses are at 6 and 7:30 a. m.

Church Letter.

Every member of the First Baptist Church is urged to be present at the Sunday morning service, to hear the reading of our letter to the Brecken Association, which meets at Bowling, Ky., August 5-6. We have one of our best reports and desire that every member be present and learn what the church is doing.

Central Presbyterian Church.
Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. J. B. Wood, Supt.

Preaching at 10:45 a. m. Union services at 7:30 p. m. at First Presbyterian Church.
Prayermeeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.
Everybody cordially invited.

R. L. BENN, Pastor.

First Baptist Church

The pastor will preach at both hours, 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. "Pure Religion" is the subject for the morning and "The Heart Piercer" will be preached upon in the evening.

Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. A place of profit to mind, soul and body, so don't fail to attend, if it be possible. B. Y. P. E. services at 6:45 p. m. in the Sunday School room.

The entire public is invited to attend, and enjoy all of these services. Good music, fellowship and music.

REV. H. B. WILHOYTE, Pastor.

Third Street M. E. Church

Services for tomorrow are as follows: Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Frank Nash, Supt.

Epworth League devotional service at 6:45 o'clock. Frank Nash leader. There will be no church services tomorrow on account of Pastor Lital's being in attendance at Ruggles Camp grounds.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. This will be Pastor Lital's first service since his return from Campgrounds and everyone should turn out and give him a welcome.

Handsome new $5 and $6 Silk Crepe Blouses $3.98 Hunt's.

TIES UP THE IMPERATOR.

London, July 31.—The Hamburg American Steamship Company announces that the sailing of the steamer Imperator from Hamburg today had been canceled.

MURDERED ON CAR TOP

With a bullet wound through his heart, inflicted with a twenty-two-caliber long bullet, Claude D. Ogle, twenty-three years of age, a brakeman for the L. & N., was found lying on the top of a box car by the train crew as his train, No. 32, neared Elizabethtown.

NEARLY $1,000,000,000

Columbus, Ohio.—A. B. Peckinpaugh of the State Tax commission told the meeting of Democratic county auditors Wednesday that the increase in the grand duplicate this year will be between $900,000,000 and $1,000,000,000.

EVERY SCHOOL

In Montgomery County, Kentucky, is a Moonlight School.

Montgomery is the first county to have every teacher, both white and colored to conduct Moonlight Schools. Also, Supt. Georgia Sledd, former Supt. M. C. Goodwin and Supervisor O'Rear have enlisted. The Moonlight Schools of Montgomery county will begin in September, and the teachers will canvass their districts on Labor Day to secure large attendance.

WEATHER REPORT

GENERALLY FAIR TODAY AND SUNDAY AND CONTINUED COOL.

MAYSVILLE PRODUCE MARKET

Following are this morning's quotations on country produce, telephoned at 9 o'clock by the E. L. Manchester Produce Company:

Eggs 16 1/2
Butter 15c
Old hens 12c
Spring chickens 14c
Old roosters 6c
Turkeys 12c

CINCINNATI MARKETS

Cincinnati, July 31.—Receipts for the past 24 hours are as follows:

Cattle, 863; hogs, 3178; sheep, 5978.
Cattle—Steady on good steers; slow and weak on all grades. Shippers $7.35 @ $8.50, extra $8.75 @ $9; butcher steers, extra $8 @ $8.25, good to choice $7 @ $9, common to fair $1.75 @ $7.75; heifers, extra $8, good to choice $7.25 @ $7.50, common to fair $4.50 @ $7.15; cows, extra $6.25 @ $6.50, good to choice, $5.50 @ $6, common to fair $3 @ $5.50, canners $3 @ $4.
Bulls—Slow and weak. Bologna $5.50 @ $6.25, fat bulls $6 @ $6.75.
Milch Cows—Slow.
Calves—Steady. Extra $10.25 @ $10.50, fair to good $7.50 @ $9, common and large $5 @ $9.50.
Hogs—Generally 10c lower. Selected heavy $9 @ $9.65, good to choice packers and butchers $9.10 @ $9.15, mixed packers $9 @ $9.10, stags $5.25 @ $7, common to choice heavy fat sows $6.25 @ $6.25, light shippers $8.30 @ $9.15; pigs 110 lbs. and less, $7.25 @ $7.75.
Sheep—Steady. Extra $4.65, good to choice $4.25 @ $4.60, common to fair $2.50 @ $4, heavy sheep $3.50 @ $4.
Lamb—Steady. Extra $8.35 @ $8.40, good to choice $7.60 @ $8.30, common to fair $5.25 @ $7.50.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

WANTED.

HAS MOVED—Woo Jun, proprietor of the Chinese laundry in Market street on account of premises to be torn down has moved to 149 E. Third St., adjoining the Douvau corner. All laundry called for and delivered.
WOO JUN, J9-1u
WANTED—Work, general housework or on a farm by Elmer Carr, colored, aged 19, 336 East Fourth street.
MALE HELP—Colored man or woman under 50 wanted. No experience needed. $100.00 month. Write quick. Box A-409, Cincinnati, Ohio.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Three burner gasoline stove on stand with oven. Apply to Mrs. Mollie Sherwood, R. R. 3.
FOR SALE—Soda fountain, 5-gallon ice cream freezer, ice box, and water cooler. Cheap if sold at once. Geneva Piers, R. D. No. 3, 31-3t

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Flat of 4 rooms, newly painted and papered, gas and bath. Apply to Mrs. L. M. Mills, 36 West Front street. 140t
FOR RENT—The large room over the Sallie S. Wood Drugstore, Market and Second streets. Apply at the drugstore. 20j0t

LOST.

LOST—Between Mr. W. D. Cochran's residence and my home, half moon gold ear ring. If found please return to Mary Nelson, West fourth St., and receive liberal reward.
LOST—Inner tube for motor cycle in black case, somewhere between Washington and East Forest avenue. Finder please return to this office or Ralph Griffin, Forest avenue, and receive reward. 28j4t

LOST.

LOST—Silver cigarette case. Return to this office and receive reward.
LOST—A diamond earring somewhere between Limestone bridge and the First M. E. Church South. Finder return same and receive reward. Mrs. W. W. Ball, East Second street, or The Ledger Office.

Our Colored Citizens.

Rev. W. C. Statesman, pastor of the Washington M. E. Church has just returned from Augusta where he assisted Rev. Coleman of Augusta in making the big Campmeeting there a financial success. Rev. Statesman and Miss Shippson, Mrs. Nannie Higgins and Albert Lane, delegates, will go to Pal month next Tuesday to attend conference.

The home of Miss Lottie P. Sanford was never more beautiful than on Thursday last when Miss Elizabeth Pauline Lewis became the bride of Mr. Otis P. Woodson of Huntington, W. Va. The parlor was beautifully decorated with ferns, palms and smilax and presented a scene never to be forgotten. The colors were pink and white. While the guests waited they were favored by two solos by Misses Beatrice Jackson and Emma D. Duncan. Then followed the wedding march by Miss Lily M. Green. The groom entered the parlor from the dining hall with Mr. John Yates, the best man. The bride with her maid, Miss Bertie Lewis. The bride's dress was spangled chiffon over white pounce with diamonds and bridal roses. Her maid wore embroidered tulle with pink ribbon and carried pink roses. The groom wore the conventional black. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. Jackson of Bethel Baptist Church. After congratulations and refreshments the bride and groom left over the C. & O. for Huntington, W. Va., their future home.

Mrs. Williams Peers of Ashland, and grandson, Master Robert Richardson, leaves today for their home after a pleasant two weeks visit with Mrs. Julia Peers of East Fourth street.

RIVER NEWS.

Gauge 15 and stationary.
Greendale comes up from Cincinnati tonight.
In the Cincinnati district the Ohio River will be about stationary or fall slowly during Saturday. The gauge at Cincinnati Friday registered 11.8 feet.

PASTIME TODAY

The Coolest Place in Town.

THE HOUSE OF QUALITY

HEAR THE

WARD KIDS

IN THOSE CATCHY SONGS

MATINEE AND NIGHT

4 REELS OF GOOD PICTURES

5c—ADMISSION—10c.

Cooling Breezes While You Eat

"My dear, this is the coolest place I have found today! I came here just for the relief."
"It is nice, just as cool as my dining-room at home. Oh, yes! I have a"

G-E Electric Fan

and couldn't get along without it! And Frank says it costs hardly anything to run it."

"How splendid! I shall certainly send to John about getting me one."
We can show you the type of fan best suited to your needs at a price suited to your purse.

FOR SALE BY ELECTRIC SHOP
MAYSVILLE GAS CO.

Be Square With Yourself

Get all the clothes value possible. Hart, Schaffner & Marx and Ederheim, Stein clothes always yield the greatest profit in worth and satisfaction. Any man who has worn them will tell you that. Bright new spring and summer goods. Amazing values at 25% off.

$25.00 values $18.75
$22.50 values $16.50
$20.00 values $15.00

J. WESLEY LEE,

THE GOOD CLOTHES MAN, Second and Market Streets.

They buy it for what it does. That's why the Ford is servant of more than 530,000. It holds the world's record for all round dependability. And it's the lightest—the strongest—the most economical car on the market. And don't forget the service.

$500 for the runabout; $550 for the touring car and $750 for the town car—f. o. b. Detroit, complete with equipment. Get catalog and particulars from Central Garage Co., 112-114-116 Market street, Maysville, Ky.